Travers Block, Bellevue avenue, corner Bath road.

TO STRANGERS.

FROM six to eight months in the year many strangers may be found in Newport who are obliged to make their stay very brief, but who desire, during their visit, to see as much of the place as is possible, and to aid them in so doing the publishers of the Directory append a few of the most attractive points in and about the place, and how to reach them.

Leading off from Thames street — the principal thoroughfare — will be seen, from the head of the wharf where the boats of the Continental Steamboat Company stop, streets running parallel with Thames, viz.: Spring street and Bellevue avenue, and once on the latter, enough will be seen to pay for the trouble of ascending the hill, which, however, is not very steep. By going up the hill on Mill street, which is only a stone's throw for passengers via Providence and New York boats, and also from the only railroad depot in the place, visitors will pass Touro Park, which faces Bellevue avenue. In the park will be seen the Old Stone Mill, which always attracts a good deal of attention, and in front of it is the fine bronze statue of Commodore M. C. Perry, who negotiated the treaty between this country and Japan.

After resting a few moments on the benches beneath the shady trees, a visit should be paid to the Redwood Library, on Bellevue avenue, a few rods northeast from the park. Continuing on the same thoroughfare a short distance, the Club House, Jewish Cemetery — a delightful spot — and the Jewish Synagogue may be seen. Retracing the few steps necessary to again reach the park, a stroll should be taken south, or down the avenue. Just southeast of the park, say about a minute's walk, is the road leading to the bathing-beach, the attractions of which are well known, on the edge of the Cliffs. At the beach is a neatly-gravelled walk, which extends for miles, and although the land is owned by the millionaires whose handsome "cottages" line the Cliffs, you have a right to walk therein to your heart's delight, the city having a claim for this privilege. A walk along the Cliffs will be found very interesting, and you will have a grand chance to take in the beautiful surroundings. You can, after your walk, reach Bellevue avenue at its extreme southern end, where you will find Burton's omnibuses, and for the sum of ten cents (children half-price), you can take the ride to town, and have an excellent opportunity to take a front view of the many elegant villas which you passed on the Cliffs, and you can also take in the magnificent view on the opposite side of the avenue. Should you desire to continue your walk, instead of taking the ride, you can keep along the rock-bound coast until you come to the Spouting Rock, which, however, is not always in its glory. The Ocean Drive is reached at this end of the city, but a walk around it, while it would be interesting, would not be desirable, but during the height of the season Burton's omnibuses leave Travers block, on Bellevue avenue, for the Ocean Drive, the price for which is but fifty cents.

On all the streets and avenues running from either side of Bellevue avenue are elegant residences, and a walk past them, under delightful shady trees, will not be devoid of interest. The time when the avenue is generally thronged with all sorts of equipages is between 4 and 7 P. M., although at any hour of the day the stranger will see enough horse-flesh and costly turn-outs to warrant him taking a stroll down the avenue.

Fort Adams should be visited. Strangers are always welcome within its formidable walls. The ferry-boat "Jamestown" leaves Ferry wharf several times a day for the fort, the fare being ten cents each way. This is by far the cheapest way to visit the second fortress in the country. Should you desire to take a sail and then reach the fort, you can do so for a moderate sum by engaging passage in one of the many sail-boats which are always ready to "push off" with one or more passengers. Tuesday and Friday afternoons the excellent military band at the fort gives free concerts. They commence at 5 P. M., and last about two hours. Hundreds avail themselves of the privilege of making a visit to the fort, where, on an excellent promenade, they can see and hear everything.

Block Island and Narragansett Pier are readily reached by sailing and steam packets.

A sail up and down the bay, as well as a run out as far as the light-ship, if you are not afraid of being sea-sick, will be a very pleasant trip, and one which can be enjoyed for $1.00 per hour, with an excellent captain, who will tell you all, and even more, than you want to know in regard to the picturesque surroundings.

There are many other attractive spots to visit, but those mentioned are all that can be seen to advantage in one brief visit. The price of a horse and carriage for a few hours' ride will not be found so high as has been reported by irresponsible newspaper writers; and if the visitors can afford this luxury, they should, without fail, avail themselves of it. The locations of the drives will readily present themselves. If sufficient time is afforded, a visit should be paid to Purgatory, Paradise, and the Hanging Rocks; but these localities are out of the city limits, and are of minor importance compared with those which can be seen with a great deal less trouble. An opportunity is offered by the Continental Steamboat Company to leave the place several times a day—twice in the morning and twice at night—stopping at the various resorts on Narragansett Bay, Rocky Point in particular. An opportunity is also offered by the Old Colony Railroad Company to leave the place four times per day for Boston and elsewhere, and connecting twice a day or more with trains running to Providence from Fall River. There are two ways of going to New York, viz.: via Wickford, and also via the boats of the Old Colony Steamboat Company, which, during the season, leave the head of Long wharf Sunday, as well as other nights.

Newport Transfer Company.

GENERAL BAGGAGE EXPRESS.

NEWPORT, R. I., May 8th, 1882.

THE management of the Newport Transfer Company take pleasure in announcing that, having purchased and consolidated the interests of the baggage business formerly owned by

B. J. Burton, Bryant & Smith, and Horace Carlisle,

It is their intention to offer the public a well-arranged, thoroughly equipped, and responsible Baggage Transfer Company, second to none found in the larger cities.

The offices of the Company are at

4 Travers Block, Bellevue Avenue, 109 Thames Street,

—AND AT—

New York Freight Depot of Fall River Line.

Calls will be made promptly at any part of the city, and baggage checked at residences through to destination.

A specialty is made of general jobbing, moving of household goods, pianos, etc.

Messengers of the Company will be found upon all incoming boats and trains, and passengers are reminded that by giving up their checks upon the train or boats, they facilitate the prompt delivery of their baggage, as it enables the messenger to make his records, etc., on the train or boat, and upon arrival the trunks are ready for immediate delivery.

As certain reports have been circulated in New York and elsewhere that Bryant & Smith, B. J. Burton, and Horace Carlisle had gone out of business, the management would say that B. J. Burton has the charge of all outside matters of the company at Newport, with office at 4 Travers Block, Bellevue avenue.

Mr. A. P. Bryant, in connection with his other duties, acts as agent of the Company at the New York Freight Depot, J. I. Greene, agent, 109 Thames street.

Horace Carlisle is messenger upon the Old Colony Railroad.

The Newport Transfer Company connects with the New York Transfer Company in New York and the Armstrong Transfer Company in Boston.

THE management of the Newport Transfer Company take pleasure in announcing that, having purchased and consolidated the interests of the baggage business formerly owned by

B. J. Burton, Bryant & Smith, and Horace Carlisle,

It is their intention to offer the public a well-arranged, thoroughly equipped, and responsible Baggage Transfer Company, second to none found in the larger cities.

The offices of the Company are at

4 Travers Block, Bellevue Avenue, 109 Thames Street,

—AND AT—

New York Freight Depot of Fall River Line.

Calls will be made promptly at any part of the city, and baggage checked at residences through to destination.

A specialty is made of general jobbing, moving of household goods, pianos, etc.

Messengers of the Company will be found upon all incoming boats and trains, and passengers are reminded that by giving up their checks upon the train or boats, they facilitate the prompt delivery of their baggage, as it enables the messenger to make his records, etc., on the train or boat, and upon arrival the trunks are ready for immediate delivery.

As certain reports have been circulated in New York and elsewhere that Bryant & Smith, B. J. Burton, and Horace Carlisle had gone out of business, the management would say that B. J. Burton has the charge of all outside matters of the company at Newport, with office at 4 Travers Block, Bellevue avenue.

Mr. A. P. Bryant, in connection with his other duties, acts as agent of the Company at the New York Freight Depot, J. I. Greene, agent, 109 Thames street.

Horace Carlisle is messenger upon the Old Colony Railroad.

The Newport Transfer Company connects with the New York Transfer Company in New York and the Armstrong Transfer Company in Boston.

Bellevue avenue, corner Redwood street. This time-honored institution was originated in 1730, and was incorporated by charter in 1747. The present edifice was erected in 1748, and it was enlarged in 1858, and again in 1874–5. Its officers are as follows: President, Francis Brinley; Vice-President, Rev. Charles T. Brooks; Treasurer, Job T. Langley; Secretary and Librarian, Benjamin F. Thurston. Ex-Gov. Charles C. Van Zandt is one of the Directors. Whole number of books in the library is 24,000. It is a private institution, but always free to those who are introduced. It is designed, in a great degree, as a library for consultation, and hundreds of eminent persons who may be found here in the summer season, resort to it for aid on the subjects which they are investigating. They do not desire to take the books away with them, and for the purpose referred to, the collection is invaluable. The walls are hung with valuable paintings, and a number of pieces of fine statuary may be found, principally the gift of the late Edward King, Esq., who, together with his family, have been great friends of the institution. The heirs of the late Sidney Brooks, Esq., of Boston, have recently loaned the library the fine statuary formerly belonging to the latter.
